Are you looking for personalized support in building your fund development program?

Pat Christie is a highly skilled consultant who brings her unique style to consulting and mentoring as a result of her background as an educator and facilitator. She has strong fund development expertise gained through working with organizations in the social services, arts, and environment and recreation sectors in the past fifteen years.

Pat's knowledge as a CFRE (Certified Fund Raising Executive) enables her to quickly assess your needs and work with your team to ensure success in meeting your fund development goals. She specializes in working with small shops to lay the foundations for a successful fund development program, coaching them to move forward independently to meet their goals and build their long term sustainability. And her clients have fun in the process!

Pat believes passionately that for fundraising to be successful it is vital to build a strong fundraising team consisting of staff, Board of Directors and volunteers, and she enjoys facilitating that change in the organizations she works with.

Pat specializes in:

- Case for Support
- Developing annual funds
- Fundraising audits
- Developing corporate sponsorship
- Prospect research
- Strategic Fund Development Plan
- Grantseeking
- Mentoring staff and Board of Directors
- Personalized fund development workshops
- Raising significant funds!

Do I recommend Pat? In short "yes". Her gentle nature yet diligent focus on what is a great pathway to take are very helpful. Her experience will also work with you to learn that pathway and the sound reasoning behind her decisions.

Pat will focus on your intended goals but at the same time help you and your team learn about the processes and decisions so that you will be able to accomplish goals near term and into the future with less stress. Pat? Yes!
