

The Goldie Company

Founded in 1965, The Goldie Company is the longest established Canadian consultancy serving the non-profit sector, with offices in Vancouver, Calgary, Halifax and Toronto. With more than one billion dollars raised with our clients, we have earned a reputation for innovation, cost-effectiveness, accountability, professionalism and success.

The Goldie Company draws strength from our diverse client experience; our tailored, team approach; an international perspective; and service from regional, fully staffed offices. The Goldie Company understands that the most productive counselling relationship is a partnership. We are committed to developing plans with, not for, our clients so that fundraising activities reflect your mission and objectives. In the counselling partnership, we support and empower individuals at all levels and degrees of fundraising sophistication.

Our team consists of seasoned, senior-level personnel who average more than 20 years of experience in fundraising. Our consultants all share a dedication to the philanthropic sector and are motivated to address fundraising challenges. We can help you assess your needs, create a winning plan and work with you to ensure its success. Let us help you shape your future.
